CORPORATE

Video Production Services

WHAT WE DO

Since 1989 Justice Pictures has served corporations, not-for-profits and small businesses producing commercials, promotional, training and PR videos. No project is beyond our capabilities.

"Frankly, I chose you for this project because of evident skills, adequate equipment, reasonable rates, and professional attitude."

—Columbia Sportswear

HOW IT'S DONE

Justice Pictures has been successful by listening to its clients, then using the professional skills we've developed over decades to deliver a project that meets their needs on time and on budget.

PRODUCTION TYPES

Justice Pictures applies its years of award winning experience; from large training video series for government organizations, to promotional fund raising videos for ministries and not-for-profits.

"...it had to be within budget...of professional quality...and we needed someone who could give us excellent service... Your company was able to meet all three of our qualifications."

—Pendleton Woolen Mills

ELEMENTS

Interviews, new footage, old footage, photos, dramatic recreations, captured events, animation and many other elements are utilized to tell the best story, your story.

DEEP BENCH

Justice Pictures brings decades of experience and know-how. Uniquely, we also draw on our experience in producing multiple feature films, documentaries, television programs and music videos.

"From music selection to the content formation of the video, we really feel your professional guidance."

—CB Commercial

CINEMA QUALITY

The cinematic skills developed through feature films, along with the digital cinema RED camera used on all projects, will help your video to stand out from the rest.
